Difficulty:

Intermediate

Suitability:

the route is suitable for an independent paddler with basic paddling and map reading skills who can stay overnight in nature using their own equipment. On large open lake the conditions may vary rapidly. Keep an eye on the weather changes, and seek shelter in time, if necessary.

Duration:

3 days, 2 nights.

Things & places to see:

The Kodanovinen Archipelago, Lake Kalaja, Loukkuvuori Mountain vantage point

Route markings:

not marked.

Day 1: Hanhitaipale Fishing Port

– Kaituri, 9 km: the beginning of the Kodanovinen paddling route runs the same way as the Kämpynä Route via Tafone Rock and Old Man Kämpynä. After the Kämpynä Mountain, the Kodanovinen route takes its own way towards Aittosalmi and Ristikivi, which hosts a historic-era rock painting. In Kaituri there is a landing stage for canoes, a lean-to and an outdoor toilet.

Day 2: Kaituri – Enonranta, 4 km:

The route continues from Kaituri to the Enonranta lean-to via Räystääsalo and Kodanovinen Islands. For those wishing to stretch their lake legs, there's 2.8 km long hiking trail called Loukkuvuoren lenkki, starting from Enonranta. There is a landing stage and a canoe step in Enonranta. If the weather is favourable and you feel up to it, you might want to take a small detour to Kiertolahti Bay, located on Lake Kalajanjärvi.

Day 3: Enonranta – Hanhitaipale

Fishing Port, 6 km: the leg on the last day will take you from Enonranta to the Hanhitaipale Fishing Port. If you wish to step out of the kayak before the port, you can paddle to Kiertolahti which closest to the Kalajan Kierros Trail.

Services & sights:

- Törmälä Holiday and Course Centre: restaurant, café, information services for the National Park, cottage & granary accommodation
- KalajaRetkeily: guided paddling tours, kayak rental, lean-to dinners
- Close by: Southern Konnevesi National Park hiking trails: Kalajan kierros Trail (4.6 km), Three Mountains Hiking Trail (16 km), Loukkuvuori Trail (2.8 km)
