ROUTE THROUGH THE CULTURAL LANDSCAPES OF RAUTALAMPI

A

Sahala Manor

A significant large estate established at the end of the 18th Century with versatile business activities.

B

Kaijärvi

Homestead of writer & poet Yrjö Kaijärvi (private estate)

C

Toholahti Bridge

Vantage point over the centuries- old cultural landscape.

D

Upper Secondary School Plaza

Buildings related to the old secondary school of the parish village.

E

Whipping Pine

Ancient place of punishment located at the municipality plaza.

F

Museum Block

Museum of Rautalampi, Outdoor Museum and Café Aurora.

G

Pitkänlahti Beach

Former church boat pier and beach.

H

Community Hall & Hiring Road

Centre Stage of old trade and worker culture.

J

Central Village Road

Nationally significant cultural environment of Rautalampi.

K

Church of St. Nicholas (Orthodox church)

The Church of St. Nicholas, built in 1959 and designed by architect Ilmari Ahonen.

L

Church of Rautalampi (Lutheran church)

One of the largest wooden churches in Finland, built in 1844.

M

Äijävesi Beach

The Äijävesi cultural landscape surrounded by the homes of the gentlefolk.

N

Korhola Manor

A significant former grand estate. The main building is from 1868. Currently an atelier of the artist Oili Marski and in travel use.

P

Konnekoski Rapid

The largest rapid in Rautalampi which has been the centre of many local manors since the 17th Century. Also a popular place for rapid fishing and white-water kayaking.

Q

Törmälä

Currently working as a holiday and course centre and a gateway to the Southern Konnevesi National Park, Törmälä used to be a vicarage. It was established in the 17th Century.

R

Hanhitaipale Harbour

The village of Hanhitaipale was established in the 17th Century, and the harbour along with it. The harbour still works as fishing and boating port..

S

Kivisalmi

The Finnish War was waged in 1808 and 1809, and this place was one of the locations of guerrilla warfare. Currently, a beautiful scenic spot and vantage point. Here you can also find a plane crash memorial and services of the Kivisalmen Kievari Inn.
